Introduction and Background

Following the Welsh Language Act (1993), Welsh language service provision was defined by individually developed Welsh Language Schemes agreed between individual public bodies and the Welsh Language Board. This arrangement has now been superseded by nationally defined Welsh Language Standards, a selection of which the Welsh Language Commissioner can apply to a public (and, in time, some private) bodies.

The framework for the imposition of standards was defined under the Welsh Language (Wales) Measure (2011), with the standards themselves detailed in Welsh Language Standards (No. 1) Regulations 2015. The standards applying to the Commission are defined in a Compliance Notice issued by the Office of the Welsh Language Commissioner in July 2016 with an effective date of July 2017. This notice is the current document governing the Commission's compliance.

This is the Commission's fourth Annual Report since standards became effective and provides an overview of the work carried out in relation to the Welsh Language Standards between 1 April 2020 to 31 March 2021.

Overview of 2020 - 21

The focus for 2020 – 21 was to ensure the Commission's continued compliance with the Welsh Language Standards.

During the year, the Commission has been able to increase its number of Welsh speakers within its workforce to five (33%) and continue to improve its ability to provide an effective Welsh Language service to its stakeholders. The Commission has also provided support to staff members who started 'Learner' courses through the provision of time off to attend classes as well as funding the cost of the courses. In addition, two senior members of staff attended 'Leading in a Bilingual Country' a training course provided by Academi Wales.

Like many other public bodies, the Commission moved to home working in due to the pandemic. Throughout this period the Commission has been able to continue to provide a Welsh language phone service to its stakeholders.

During the year no complaints were raised about the Commission's operation of the standards.

Operation of Standards

Service Delivery Standards

In terms of correspondence, all of the procedural letters and e-mails sent out as part of the reviews process have been produced in both Welsh and English and sent out at the same time. For other items of correspondence, a language preference system has been implemented. Where a preference is not known correspondence is produced in Welsh and English. The Commission continues to maintain a database that records the language preference of individuals that we correspond with. (Standard numbers 1 to 7).

Procedures in respect of answering the main telephone number are in operation and a Welsh Language answer service is in place (Standard numbers 8 to 22).

Procedures in respect of the necessary arrangements for holding meetings are in operation. When organising meetings, the Commission also works collaboratively with other public bodies who are subject to Welsh Language standards i.e. local authorities. (Standard numbers 24 to 30).

No public events were held by the Commission during the year (Standard numbers 31 to 34).

All documents produced for public use were published in both Welsh and English at the same time (Standard numbers 36, 44 and 45).

No forms that were made available to the public were produced during the year (Standard numbers 46 to 47).

All of the pages on the Commission's web site are fully functional and available in both Welsh and English (Standard numbers 48, 51 and 52).

Social media usage is in both Welsh and English (Standard number 54 and 55).

All signs and notices have been produced in Welsh and English to the required standard. (Standard numbers 57 to 59, 65 and 66).

The number of the Welsh speaking staff in the Commission has enabled the Commission to provide a Welsh language reception service when required (Standards number 61).

All contract material was produced in Welsh and English and the appropriate handling procedures were followed (Standards numbers 72,73, 75 and 76).

No new Welsh language service. The Commission updated its corporate logos during the year which also included an update to the Welsh language version. (Standards numbers 77 to 79).

In respect of publicising the service delivery standards that apply to the Commission and how they are to be complied with, these can be found in the Welsh Language Standards Policy and Procedures document which is published on the web site and is available at the office. (Standard numbers 149 and 153).

The Commission's Welsh Language Complaints Policy is available on the web site and is available in the office. (Standard numbers 150 to 151).

This document constitutes the Commission's annual report in respect of service delivery standards (Standard number 152).

No requests for information in respect of service delivery standards were requested by the Welsh Language Commissioner during the year (Standard number 154).

Policy Making Standards

No new policies or revisions of existing policies have occurred during the year that required the undertaking of a Welsh Language Policy Impact Assessment (Standards numbers 84 to 89).

No policy related research was undertaken or commissioned during the year (Standards numbers 91 to 93).

In respect of publicising the policy making standards that apply to the Commission and how they are to be complied with, these can be found in the Welsh Language Standards Policy and Procedures document which is published on the web site and is available at the office. (Standard numbers 155 and 157).

The Commission's Welsh Language Complaints Policy is available on the web site and is available in the office (Standard number 156).

This document constitutes the Commission's annual report in respect of policy making standards (Standard number 158).

No requests for any information relating to policy making standards were received during the year (Standard number 160).

Operational Standards

A use of Welsh at Work Policy is in place and a copy has been provided to all staff and Commissioners (Standard number 94).

The language preferences for all new and existing members of staff are gathered and acted on accordingly (Standards 95 to 100)

A procedure has been put in place to ensure that any new or revised staffing policies are published in Welsh and English (Standards 101 to 107)

Procedures for making and responding to complaints made by members of staff are in place and are included in the Use of Welsh at Work Policy (Standards 108, 108A, 110 and 111).

Procedures in respect of disciplinary matters are in place and are included Use of Welsh at Work Policy (Standards 112, 112A, 114 and 115).

Due to the pandemic, the Commission has focused its efforts on moving its staff to remote working and delivering the Electoral Review Programme 2017. Limited work has been carried out in relation to the intranet, however with a new Communications and Engagement manager in post, this work will now be taken forward via the postholder. (Standards 118, 120 to 123).

An assessment of the Welsh language skills of all staff was undertaken and is being maintained and added to for new staff (Standard 123), Appendix 1.

All members of staff have been made aware of and encouraged at each monthly team meeting to take up opportunities for Welsh language training and in addition new members of staff are encouraged to attend Welsh language awareness training. All members of staff have been provided with a copy of the Use of Welsh at Work Policy and the Commission's Welsh Language Standards Policy and Procedures document so that they have an understanding of the Commission's duty to operate in accordance with the Welsh Language Standards and how the Welsh Language can be used in the workplace (Standards 126 to 129).

Appropriate wording and instructions in respect of email signatures and contact details have been provided to all staff (Standards 130 and 131).

Appropriate arrangements have been put in place regarding the Welsh language requirements of posts and the advertising and filling of vacancies (Standards 132 to 133B, 135 to 136). Details of advertised posts are at Appendix 2.

No new signs were erected during the year (Standards 137 to 139).
